

Personal Mention

UPI/Taschiro

GENERALISSIMO FRANCISCO FRANCO, Europe's longest-ruling head of state, stands beside his wife, CARMEN, as they mark their 30th wedding anniversary in Madrid. Franco, 80, and his wife, 72, celebrated with a feast and a small reception, followed by a family reunion.

Hirohito

Lyon

Princess Anne

Emperor HIROHITO, a marine biologist, and Empress NAKAHO entertained 200 guests from 29 nations at an Imperial Palace tea. The two directors are in Tokyo for a conference.

Actress SUE LYON said she will get married Nov. 4 in Cannes City, Calif., but she didn't say to whom. Miss Lyon starred in "Lolita," "Night of the Ignorant" and "Tony Rome." Her leading men have included RICHARD BURTON and FRANK SINATRA.

Princess ANNE and her fiancé, Capt. MARK PHILLIPS, went for a ride in a Concorde, the British-French supersonic airliner, over England.

Actress GALE SONDENBERG finally has received her Oscar, 27 years after she was named best supporting actress for her role in "Anthony Adverse." Miss Sonden- berg, named best supporting actress when the award was inaugurated in 1936, received the Oscar in a surprise presentation Tuesday. She was given a plaque in 1936, and in recent years the National Academy has replaced such plaques with the statu- ettes.

HOUSTON CHRONICLE

HOUSTON, TEXAS, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1973

BIG CITY BEAT by Maxine

SHE SNOOPS TO CONQUER: Dean Goss, the dinner theatre owner, is branching out in his show biz career. He's inked a contract for his first date as a comedian at the Hacienda in Vegas. He opens a four-weekend Dec. 13 on the bill with country singer Tammy Overstreet. Meanwhile, Dean's off to Flordia, Texas, this weekend to MC that city's big centennial celebration. On the subject of Vegas, the M-G-M Grand Hotel has set its opening for Dec. 5, with Dean Martin in the spotlight. There'll be lots of Hollywood folks on hand as hosts at the opening party. FYI: Sheiky Greene spent his final stint at the Riviera this week. After 13 years there he'll move over to the M-G-M and will follow Dean Martin in the big room. At the Riviera, Sheiky is sharing the bill with Joey Houston. I hope this will be the end of the Acapulco sailfish saga. In fact, as of now, I think I'll just end it and stand corrected on the 1964 (the recent record in the column) with attorney Thomas Bouquet's sailfish of 1964, caught in 1959. Thomas says he used a 9'4" mullet for bait. I will add that Lucille M.S. Taylor claims a 9'11" sailfish caught in 1958.

BAYOU BUZZ: Our Town's Arthur Pugh, who assembled the dinosaur for the Museum of Natural Science, has a new project that sounds like a hit. Arthur has invented a new board game, "Moor's Mike Mysterious Game." It got its name from Mike Pugh, who attends Sharpstown High and is well known in motorcycle racing circles. Mike's making appearances to tout the game in Houston, L.A., N.Y., etc. . . . Los Bergstrom and Fredell Polak will wait to the after Nov. 23. She's the daughter of Tolpagan Construction exec Buddy P and wife Lillian. . . . Harry Higby, professor of "Irene," "No No Nonsense" and "Good News," has invited a few Houstonians to a party he's giving for his leading ladies next Monday at the Essex House in N.Y. The list includes Baby Keeler, Alice Payne, Debbie Reynolds, Jane Powell and Patsy Kelly. . . . Sounds 'N' Imports' Red and Arline Riddle are back from celebrating her birthday in Vegas. . . . Jerry Brown and her date, Ray Fveah, and Barbara Carter and date Stanley Dushburg celebrated the gals' joint birthdays with pals at Boccaccio 3000. At another table, Charles and Wynne Kell were toasting a party for daughter Jo Anne's birthday. . . .

DON'T SAY I DIDN'T TELL YOU: Jeffrey and Martha Lyn Ward are moving to Albuquerque Nov. 1, when he'll head the Rowles Winston office. In line with that, Keith and Johanne Dedson, Tammy and Janice Culp and Ken and Marilyn Berg tossed a farewell party for 'em in the Bergs' gorgeous new home in Richmond. Some 100 of their pals were on hand, including Jeffrey's parents, Charles and Judy Ward, the Battlestar's exec. FYI: Judy wore a specially made blouse with the printed message: "I'm Judy FYI me to Albuquerque." . . . It's a girl for tax attorney Elton Lipnick and wife Barbara. They'll call her Amy Pauline. . . . The United Jewish Campaign's set auction for the Israel Emergency Fund, set for Tuesday at Temple Emanu-El, is growing in momentum. Charles Madden just donated a $7500 Aubusson tapestry for the block, and John Calway came up with a Whisper etching. Jim will also be one of the auctioneers. The proceeds are allocated for medical supplies in Israel. . . . Photos Blaine Hickey and Ophelia Robertson are home after a long assignment in Europe where they photographed in the museums for the Menil Foundation. . . .

MAIN DRAG MERRY-GO-ROUND: Charles G. Heyne and Co's C. B. Vanderburg takes off Friday for his 50-year class reunion at Oakdale (Louisiana) High. Not only that, his men, Mrs. W. J. Vanderburg, is being honored at the reunion as the only living member of the Class of '22. . . . Robert Strauss, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and George Bush, chairman of the Republican National Committee, will be chief auctioneers at the Political Memorabilia Auction Nov. 18 at the Junior League here. Memorabilia from political campaigns and personal items donated by political personalities will be auctioned for the benefit of the Texas Bill of Rights Foundation. Among the auction items are a desk weight from Gloria Steinem and a shawl made from the ties of Texas legislators. Lots of Houstonians who read Women's Wear Daily weren't too shocked up over a recent story by Peter Rayne about our Museum Ball, in which he quotes exiting director Philippe de Montebello as saying he agreed with critics who thought the museum's new wing is "cold and impersonal, looking something like a refined airport terminal." . . .

IN HOUSTON

BY ALLISON SANDERS
"The Monitors"

Look Homeward, Angel

Things have come to a pretty pass when—but NO! It just COULDN'T be!
Joe Badders of 4384 Darsey, Bellaire, was en route to town on the bus Tuesday morning, with nothing better to do than read the signs along Main St., when he saw one that really shook him, he reports.
It was in front of the former Second Presbyterian Church Building, which has been vacant ever since the congregation moved to a handsome new building out Weatherway way and became Grace Presbyterian Church, and what it says is:
"For Sale, by OWNER!"
If you're interested in buying, say a prayer.

You Can Go Broke Again

Have had a luxurious postcard from Jerry Sharp. Can't tell for sure where it came from because the U.S. Postal Service keeps that information from the taxpayers these days. Postcards don't mean a thing anymore.
But on the picture side of the card there is a drawing of a man who looks like "Corroton" in those antiretro TV commercials, trudging along a rocky road. Somebody—Sharp, I expect—has drawn in some signs on the road; an arrow pointing to where the barn is headed, labeled "Houston," and another one behind him, pointed back and labeled "Las Vegas." The message on the card tells the sad, familiar story. It is addressed to "My neighbors and would-be friends" and reads:
"I am going to arrive home barefooted. My trip to Las Vegas was a total disaster. Please call and sympathize."
I have been to Las Vegas myself a time or two. Do call Sharp and sympathize.

Of Dimes and the Givers

There are so many solicitations for Worthy Causes being made these days (you've noticed!) that it's no wonder the solicitors themselves sometimes sort of lose track.
Joel Carroll of 3224 Grape is with the Metro Houston March of Dimes. Jack Mann, president of Meyerland Bank, is a MOD campaign leader and associate treasurer for the March.
On a recent afternoon Carroll called on Mann to talk MOD business—and to discuss the bank's annual contribution to the fund.
At home that evening Carroll's phone rang.
"Mr. Carroll?" the caller said. Carroll admitted it. "This is Jack Mann," the caller continued. The name rang a faint bell for Carroll, but for the moment he couldn't place it. "You?" he said.
"I'm calling on behalf of the University of Houston Alumni Federation." Mann continued. "As an alumnus yourself, I'm sure you know about the good work the federation does. Of course that takes money. You have contributed before and—Wait a minute! Are you the Joel Carroll of the March of Dimes?"
"I am," Carroll told him. "Are you the Jack Mann I visited this afternoon on behalf of the MOD?"
Mann had been calling from a list of names of UH alumni and hadn't recognized Carroll's name, and Carroll has a lot of things on his mind and, at first, hadn't recognized his caller's name.
The two had a good laugh together and promised to exchange donations to the two Worthy Causes.
