Dear Abby:

'Kitchen sitting' galling to dad

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our 13-year-old daughter, Caroline, has started going with a guy named Angelo. He never takes her any place. He just comes over every night to watch television and wear out our sofa.

When Angelo comes over, the wife and I have to go sit in the kitchen so he and Caroline can have their privacy in the living room. I suppose we could go in our bedroom, but who wants to go to bed at 7 o'clock?

So, every night lately the wife and I sit in the kitchen like a couple of cockroaches trying to watch television on a dinky little portable.

The wife is so happy that Caroline finally has a boy friend she doesn't say a word. I am getting tired of this set-up. What should I do?

KITCHEN SITTING
DEAR ABBY: Send me a picture of Caroline and I'll tell you what to do.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have only one child, Ellen, who is now 7. Since we aren't able to have any more we have decided to adopt a child, but here is our problem. We want a little girl 3-5 years old not too much for our son. She is a shy child and has never made friends easily. Being an only child, she's inclined to be a little spoiled and, therefore, not easy to get along with. We feel that if Ellen had a sister her age it would relieve her loneliness and give her someone to keep her company.

ELLEN'S MOTHER
We've spoken to several adoption agencies and they haven't been very encouraging. They seem to think we should adopt a younger child, and possibly a boy. But Abby, what kind of a companion would that be for our lonely little daughter? Also, isn't it true that when a new baby comes into a home, the older child becomes jealous and resentful?

Can you give us some advice?

DEAR MOTHER: You appear to be more concerned with the needs of your own child than with the needs of an adopted child. To foster a "teen" or Ellen in order to provide her with a companion and relieve her loneliness could be a sad mistake for all. Why not take a foster child for a while and see how it works out? Or perhaps the Lord in His infinite wisdom intended for you to have one?

DEAR ABBY: My gripe is my landlady. She had a key to my apartment, saying she needed it in case of an emergency.

I know for a fact that this landlady has gone into my apartment and looked through my drawers, closets and my desk.

I asked a friend of mine who is a private detective if my landlady had the right to go into my apartment without my permission, and he said absolutely not! He also said if I suspected that mine did, I had the right to change the lock on my door and refuse to give her the key. Well, this is exactly what I did. And I told her that in case of an emergency she could break the door down with an ax and I would pay for a new one. Needless to say, no emergency ever came up and I've been living there for two years. Of course when she sees me, she turns her head, but I like it better that way.

KNOWS MY RIGHTS
DEAR KNOWS: "Rights" differ in different buildings, cities and even states. It's amazing how few landlords know their rights. And even fewer tenants know theirs.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WAITING AND HOPE: A man who would cheat on his wife would be to his girl friend. And if he did divorce her and marry you, what would you have? A husband who cheats on his wife.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 6270, Los Angeles, Calif. 90060. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.
